

CHARACTER FIRST! Lunch Workshop

Character-based principles for a successful workplace

Achieve True Success Through Character Development

Employees determine the success of your organization, but not solely with their knowledge, skills, and abilities. Their productivity and performance stems from their character. A punctual employee arrives to work on time. A diligent employee invests all of her efforts to complete a task. An alert employee is keenly aware of each customer's needs.

Improve Your Workplace

This Character Workshop luncheon will introduce you to character-based principles and equip you with practical insights on how to promote character within your organization. Through emphasizing, requiring, and recognizing positive character qualities, you can encourage your employees to achieve true success.

- Hiring for Character—Are you minimizing personnel problems by hiring the right employees?
- Teaching Character—Is your company building strong relationships?
- Character Recognition—Are you recognizing character or only achievement?
- Character-Based Correction—Does your correction process contribute to a positive outcome?

Build Trust and Cooperation

By using character-based principles, you will further your organization's success. Companies around the world report the following benefits that result from emphasizing character:

- Develops morale and unity
- Boosts productivity
- Improves quality
- Lowers workers' compensation
- Cultivates customer relationships
- Increases profits

"Nothing could do more to improve your work environment in a single day."
